Welcome Statement

Welina mai kākou

The board of Koa 'Ike Foundation and our president Glen Kila are honored to invite you to join us for a 10-day cultural exchange in Wai'anae O'ahu, Hawai'i for the 2022 'Ike 'Āina Pacific Exchange Conference. The programs' purpose is to connect students with cultural practitioners and conservation professionals through service-learning and cultural exchange. We were blessed to be hosted in Aotearoa during the season of the first nationally recognized Matariki holiday. We were so inspired by the hospitality of our hosts we realized the program would be incomplete without a return exchange for our Māori Whānau.

Participants will stay in a beautiful estate in Mākaha valley next to Kāne'ākī temple. The philosophy of Ka'ananiau will serve as an epistemological guide for the exchange activities. The program will visit conservation and cultural sites & temples across the island of O'ahu. Presentations will expound on site visits to reveal a distinct zodiacal constellation hidden in our stories and revealed throughout the seasons in the mountains and temples of O'ahu. Activities and presentations are designed with the deliberate intent to reveal tangible and verifiable evidence of our connections in the Pacific and to the world. We are excited for the opportunity to reconnect with our Pacific 'Ohana.

The return exchange will take place from November 22nd to Dec 2nd during the Makali'i season in Hawai'i. The program will culminate in a conference hosted by Koa 'Ike Foundation in partnership with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Office of Native Hawaiian Relations. We invite you to join us in this unique opportunity to reconnect and build. Please RSVP at ceo@koaike.com or on our events page at Koaike.com.
